Thank you for taking the time to attend The Bridge Children's Advocacy Center's training today. Our board and staff are committed to providing a path to healing and justice for children in the Texas Panhandle and your attendance today will undoubtedly have an impact for our kids!

Training for professionals is vital to provide the best services possible for those impacted by abuse. I hope today's training will bolster you in your fight against child abuse.

Today's training is an integral part of our nonprofit agency's vision to end child abuse. The Bridge offers child advocacy services, quality community education, and professional training, free of charge thanks to the generosity of individuals and corporations from the upper 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle.

Please be sure to complete a survey and share your thoughts about today's presentation. Your feedback is important!

Thanks again for your time and commitment to end child abuse in the Texas Panhandle.

Sincerely,

Shelly Bohannon
